Description

This is an antique shop's display cabinet. An English, oak showcase with glazed door, dating to the Edwardian period, circa 1910. Slender proportion with a pleasingly tall profile, ideal for a small collection. Displays a desirable aged patina and in good order. Select oak stocks show fine grain interest and warm caramel hues. Quality glass plate presents a clear, bright view to the shelving within. Striking carved pediment adds decoration to the door. Opens to reveal a suite of four removable shelves. Dressed to the side with a rotating brass clasp — aged lock, no key. Finished with a pair of small brass mounting loops for ease of hanging. This is an appealing antique shop's display cabinet, with an attractive oak and glass finish. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready to display.
