Description

This is a beautiful English antique late Victorian Gonçalo Alves octagonal centre table, circa 1890 in date. The banded strung top is beautifully centred by a floral marquetry rosette over an undertier with openwork side panels with marquetry inlaid splats and a decorative pierced gallery. The table is raised on eight square tapered legs with ceramic castors. This table will grace any room in your house and become a focal point. Condition: In excellent condition having been beautifully cleaned and waxed in our workshops, please see photos for confirmation. It is sometimes referred to as tigerwood — a name that underscore the wood's often dramatic, contrasting color scheme. While the sapwood is very light in color, the heartwood is a sombre brown, with dark streaks that give it a unique look. The wood's color deepens with exposure and age and even the plainer-looking wood has a natural luster. Two species are usually listed as sources for ...
