Description

A wonderful, classically shaped solid sterling silver pounce pot, dating from the end of the Victoria era. It is clearly hallmarked on the side for London 1887. The maker's mark is difficult to read. The simple decoration of four concentric circles is repeated on the pedestal base, the top of the body and the base of the lid. The screw-on lid fits well and the gilding inside is excellent. There are no engravings. There is a slight wobble to the base.

Dimensions: Height 7.5cm Diameter: 3cm Silver Weight: 40g. Post and packaging are free within the UK.
