Description

Attractive early 19th century flame mahogany grandfather clock . The clock has a very clean painted dial with working date and second dials . Also a working silent /chime hand . The 8 day movement has been cleaned and serviced working well keeping good time . The case is mahogany with a great colour and grain with a wonderful Antique patina . It does have a few knocks and small losses as photographed ,the back has had a recent repair . overall a good honest clock that has been professionally cleaned and serviced that should give any problems for several years . We can arrange delivery through out the UK please enquire for a competitive delivery price
