Description

George I Burr Elm chest This George I burr elm chest was made circa 1720. The colour and patina of this stunning George I chest is just stunning. This is a fabulous chest of drawers with the stunning choice of the Burr Elm to the drawer fronts. The top and sides veneered in walnut that has interesting swirls in the grain, finishing with a good deep cross banding around the top and sides. Running around the drawers and plinth you have the end grain walnut mouldings; this gives the chest an incredible uplift. Having the sectional end grain moulding shows the expertise of the cabinetmaker, who took the desired time to make this to a superior standard. If you are looking for a superb chest of drawers you will be hard pressed to find anything in its league. Imagine the pleasure you will gain owning this majestic chest of drawers, especially as your family and friends wonder at it. 97cms wide 38 1/4ins 56cms deep 22ins 91cms high 36ins All Measurements are as accurate as possible Delivery UK mainland FREE Other destinations please contact us, and we will get a quote.
