Description

Large French Empire gilt clock by Deniere et Fils This Large French Empire gilt clock by Deniere et Fils was made circa 1830. Jean-François Denière (1774-1866) founded Denière & Fils in 1804. The company soon established itself as an important manufacturer of decorative bronzes in Paris. This case displays his exquisite workmanship, the bronze case having wonderful detail. The lady with a thoughtful pose resting on the case with a draped globe under her arm, with books to the side. The stepped base with acanthus leaves as a border, superb cast feet with other fine adornments. The bronze clock case is gilded with subtle highlighting of bright gilding. This important gilt bronze clock is top grade and will give you much pleasure of ownership. Imagine how wonderful this will look in your home and the pleasure it will bring. 57cms high 22 1/2ins 15cms deep 6ins 39.5cms wide 15 1/2ins Measurements are approximate, whilst we take care in measuring there may at times be a very slight difference.
