Description

William IV rosewood library bookcase This William IV rosewood library bookcase was made circa 1830. As you can see in the images, this is an impressive Antique bookcase and having the eglomise glass panels enhance it greatly. It is made in 2 sections, that makes it very easy to transport it to and around your home. The top section comprises of double-glazed doors that enclose adjustable bookshelves, to each side of the doors are eglomise glass panels. The base section is fitted a pair of rosewood panelled doors, again to each side of the doors are matching eglomise panels. Imagine how wonderful this will look once you have filled the large storage it provides and the pleasure of owning it will give you. This bookcase stands on a plinth base. 123cms wide 48 1/2ins 44.5cms deep 17 1/2ins 207cms high 81 1/2ins Measurements are approximate, whilst we take care in measuring there may at times be a very slight difference.
