Description

This quality Antique Albertina chain features two strands of chain complete with two highly decorative balls, modelled in Silver. This Albertina also features a twisted T-bar, dog clip and tassel drop. An Albertina chain is the name given to a watch chain worn by women. These chains were popular during the Victorian era, along with Albert chains, which were worn by men. The Albertina chains were generally finer than the Albert chains, and often were multi-stranded, with charms and fobs. This chain would now make the perfect bracelet, measuring 7.5" in bracelet length. METAL Silver (800) MEASUREMENTS Measures 7.5" in Bracelet length Measures 10" total length (including tassel) Balls measure 1.2cm x 1.2cm Dog Clip measures 1.8cm x .6cm WEIGHT 16.5 grams CONDITION Light wear in keeping with age.
