Description

A most attractive silver mounted glue pot dating from the end of the Victorian era. This unusual example has a lobed cut glass body and is of good weight. The hallmarked silver lid echo's the body in design and the hand grip is modelled in the shape of a hook. The brush is mounted to the inside of the lid and is of Hog hair. Glue pots are rather rare and collectable, making this a good collector's piece. Dimensions below. Postage and packing £10.00 UK £18.00 Europe £24.00 Outside Europe Condition :- Excellent, with no dents or splits to the silver, no chips or cracks to the glass and no loss to the brush. Hallmarks :- Clear and readable. Some slight loss to the edge of the date letter. Date :- Birmingham 1891. Maker :- John Grinsell & Sons. Height :- 9.8 cms. (to top of handle). Diameter :- 6 cms. (widest point).
