Description

An unusual and exceptionally attractive silver bowl, beautifully designed and decorated and a particularly lovely shape. It has a handle to one side and stands on three paw feet. Slightly rubbed hallmarks are visible on one side, however still decipherable with the Birmingham Assay mark and the maker's mark for the renowned silversmiths: Mappin & Webb. The date is not decipherable but the style is typically 1930's. A lovely item in super antique collector's condition. Would make a wonderful gift.
