Description

A beautifully figured Mahogany drop flap dining table with cabriole legs terminating on a very generous claw and ball foot. I have cleaned of a darkly polished top, resealed the top and wax finished the top revealing a lovely gamut of colour. The base has been waxed to warm glow. The table under frame is in excellent solid condition with a small amount of old historic dead wood worm the table will undergo a predelivery inspection which includes as a precautionary measure treating the under frame for wood worm and wax filling. A lovely 1770s Georgian mahogany comfortable six-seater dining table standing on finely carved cabriole legs. £1285 Ref 202 LV H70.5cm W50cm D122cm when closed. W146cm D122cm when open. A pre-delivery inspection, a final clean and wax will be undertaken to ensure this piece arrives to you at its very best.
