Description

A lovely pair of Sterling Silver berry spoons with long handles and beautifully decorated spoons with repoussé work berries. The handles have finely engraved decoration and a small armorial crest in the form of a swan engraved on the tip. They are excellent quality, weighing approximately 92g in total. They are both fully hallmarked for Exeter, 1806 and the maker William Welch II. They measure approximately 8 3/4" (22cm) long. The spoon heads themselves are 3" (7.5cm) long and 1 3/4" (4.5cm) wide. They are in excellent condition. There are no major damages and they display beautifully. There are some faint surface marks and a few light scratches and signs of age and use but nothing detrimental. They have been lightly cleaned and polished and are ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Tracked UK delivery £6, rest of the world £25.
