Description

Well proportioned late Regency to early William IV two door marble top cabinet with turned pillars on an ebonised plinth base, circa 1840. Internally you have a single full width shelf, but this is adjustable so with the base surface and this you have two surfaces. The mahogany has a wonderfully rich, almost blackened finish to it and contrasts so well with the white and grey veined marble top. Ideal for a drinks cabinet, hall cabinet of console, server or tv cupboard! Measuring: 30 inches or 76 cm high 39 1/2 inches or 100 cm wide 18 1/2 inches for 47 cm deep 14 inches or 35.5 cm internal depth 24 3/4 inches or 63 cm internal height
