Description

A monumental pair of Neoclassical ormolu mounted malachite obelisks on mahogany pedestals, Circa 1920 in date. The square conforming malachite columns taper to pyramid shapes with applied decorative gilt ormolu mounts. The obelisks stand on malachite stepped plinth bases that are decorated with impressive ormolu mounts and raised on decorative ormolu feet. They stand on a pair of antique Empire Revival ormolu mounted mahogany pedestals with square stepped tops over gilt reeded friezes on rectangular column decorated with satin wood crossbanding and ormolu rosettes palmette mounts. There is no mistaking the quality of this masterpiece which is sure to be a treasured addition to your home. Condition: In really excellent condition, please see photos for confirmation.
