Description

A fine example of a Georgian Sterling Silver ladle. It has a round bowl and a pretty handle with Kings Pattern shell decoration. There is a very faint engraved armorial lion on the tip of the handle. It is excellent quality and weighs approximately 83g. It measures approximately 7" (18cm) long and the bowl is 2 1/4" (6cm) wide. It is fully hallmarked for London, 1831 and the maker William Chawner II. It is in excellent condition with a very clear hallmark. There are no damages and it displays beautifully. There are some faint surface scratches and a few light marks but nothing detrimental. It has been gently cleaned and polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Tracked UK delivery £6, rest of the world £25.
