Description

A pair of brass barley twist candlesticks which have been converted to table lamps. The candlesticks are good quality and originally date from the late 19th century. They have been nicely converted with faux candles below the bulb holders. They have been PAT tested and wired to modern standards to take a standard bayonet bulb (bulb not included). The lamps are in excellent condition and have been beautifully polished. There are some minor signs of age and use but nothing detrimental and they display well. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Tracked UK delivery £15.
