

SA976175

A Wedgwood dragon big Lustre bowl, designed by Daisy Makeig Jones.

Price

Sold

Item Reference: SA976175

Date of manufacture: 1920

Dimensions

Height = 10 cm (3.9")

Width = 20 cm (7.9")

Description

The "Celestial Dragons" bowl, by Wedgwood. A Wedgwood dragon Lustre bowl, octagonal form, designed by Daisy Makeig Jones, pattern Z4829. Dated to the roaring 1920s. The Fairyland Lustre line was an immediate hit when first released by Wedgwood in 1915 it was in production to 1931 and has remained an extremely popular and sought after series to this day. Decorated on the upper rim and on the rim of the bottom with a Greek pattern, and on the outside and inside are golden dragons, birds, and buildings. Truly, a very large bowl, and stamp at the bottom is very clear. The gilding and paints in excellent condition. There's a small haircrack at the bottom from the inside, you can't see it from the outside. The paint and gilding are in perfect condition, inside on the walls of the paint faded, some where there are cracks in paint. Please carefully regard all photos. But the image of the dragon at the bottom is very clear from the inside. 10.5 cm in diameter of base 10 cm in height 20 cm in upper diameter

Seller Details

Gillers Antiques Ltd

Buckland House Buntingford Hertfordshire SG9 OPY United Kingdom

Tel: 07738 009924

International Tel: +44 7738 009924

