Description

This is a very charming hand coloured etching of hunting dogs in the field by George Vernon Stokes. The picture which dates from the early 20th century is signed and numbered 9 of 75. Stokes is best known for his book illustrations and his studies of water fowl, game birds and working dogs. He produced a characteristic style of tinted etchings, produced in limited runs of usually 75. The style of the picture is sparse pencil strokes with colour applied to the dogs and the mallard. The etching is in its original neat solid oak frame which suits it well. The etching measures 48 cms by 46 cms overall, including the frame. UK insured delivery is £20
