Description

A good quality burr walnut cabinet dating from the late 19th Century. It has two inlaid doors with oval bevelled mirrors that open to a shelved interior. The shelf is removable and the doors come with their original working key. The top has a small raised brass gallery and a nicely strung inlaid border. The cabinet stands on short turned legs with brass castors. It is a good useful size and is in good condition for its age. The walnut has developed a wonderful rich patina and it displays well. It is not without some small knocks and marks and a few small chips and splits but nothing untoward or detrimental. It has been cleaned and gently polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Nationwide delivery available through our network of reliable couriers.
