Description

19th Century Kashmiri Hand Painted Trinket Box A true work of art, this mid-19th Century Kashmiri hand-crafted trinket box is covered in beautiful detail. Including peacocks, birds, flowers, and foliage. The hand painted detail is raised from the box with gold gilded paint and vibrant colours. The box is hinged with its original key and painted orange inside, this example would likely have been owner by a wealthy individual considering the amount of detail and craftsmanship that has gone into creating it, A rare survivor. Size of inches approx.: H 4" x W 11.5" x D 4.5" Completely solid in structure and form, with natural wear, loss of surface detail, the paint has worn away over years with damage in areas and loss of detail, The key is present however the lock does not close. The House of Antiques sells authentic decorative objects, we do not refurbish or repair items unless stated or unless completely necessary to the item's stability or longevity. These objects are old so please expect wear and tear as some are over 100 years old and untouched in form.
