Description

We are delighted to offer this stunning antique Art Deco period diamond & sapphire ring. Distinct and distinguished even upon a quick glance, this ring's aesthetic and deco design most certainly stands out from the crowd and presents a remarkable design. As with many antique periods, each historic time has its own unique style that distinguishes itself from the contemporary pieces - this ring's goldsmithing and metalwork are very fine with geometric shapes and angles that support the set gems. A central diamond (approx 0.18ct) is surrounded by four princess-cut sapphires and six smaller rose-cut diamonds. The white gold and diamonds sparkle wonderfully under lighting and the blue sapphires are a delightful contrast to the overall stylish and clean look. Sapphire is known to be the birthstone of September and diamonds for April. A splendid gift to a lucky individual or as an indulgent treat for oneself. Distinguished in style and a conversation starter, an ideal addition for the discerning jewellery and antique lover. The ring is not marked however is fully tested for 18K white gold. All of our rings come with a complimentary hard shell gift box with a ve...
