Description

We are delighted to offer this lovely antique Victorian 15K gold brooch. This brooch features a distinctly Victorian cartouche design with the central portion being embellished with a rich blue enamel. The surrounding border that encompasses the enamel is made from 18 seed pearls that wonderfully contrast the striking blue tone with a softer and natural cream colour. Distinctly antique and distinguished from contemporary pieces, this pendant is bound to be a delightful addition to any fine jewellery lover and a conversation starter. With many modern-day uses such as a lapel pin, brooch on a dress or even an accessory to pin to a handbag, why not get creative and indulge in wearing your piece of history with delight. The contrasting seed pearls are an additional delight, wonderfully blending with the gold setting and accenting the edges. Pearls are known to be the birthstone for June. A splendid gift to a lucky individual or as an indulgent treat for oneself. Classically elegant and ideal for the discerning jewellery and antique lover. The brooch is unmarked however we have fully tested it for solid 15K gold. *This listing is for the brooch only, ...
