Description

This is a unique opportunity to acquire a pristine and rare cabaret set over 120 years old. The Star ceramics factory operated from 1900-1919. It was based in Longton, North Staffordshire, England. Star ceramics operated with the trade name Paragon. Paragon China Co Ltd established in 1919. The name "Paragon China" became synonymous with luxury porcelain goods and obtained the royal patronage of Queen Mary, when a royal warrant was awarded. This complete set is not only rare, but in this outstanding condition, utterly unique. It is bound in silver which has been rolled thinly to become malleable and capable of shaping and encapsulating the ceramics. The silver has been finely soldered and fused, therefore making it a combined form with the ceramics. It is exceptionally detailed and engraved silver mounts every single piece of ceramic within the set. The set comprises of: Batchelor teapot and lid, Milk jug, Sugar bowl, Two cups, two saucers. This set was manufactured at the beginning of the 20th century and embodies the skills of the ceramics alchemist and lavish craftsmanship of the silversmith. This set is in virtually pristine condition, one small internal hairline at the neck...
