Description

An absolutely exquisite Victorian easel in bamboo with an original faux-tortoiseshell finish. This piece is an astonishing survivor with nothing missing and with no breaks or repairs. It has four height positions for the two well-turned pegs, and an infinitely adjustable angle of display. When folded flat for storage or transportation it has overall sizes of 152 x 60 x 5 cms. This 19th century easel is by far the prettiest and most stylish we've seen in over thirty years of trading. It is English, c.1875 - c.1900.
