Description

Early 20th Century folk art ship & sailboat diorama This hand-crafted Early 20th Century English diorama contains 2 ship models. One of the ships has a British flag flying from its mast, The other has an ink written message stating "HCB Sept 3rd 1931". Both ships are made from wood, paper, and rope, mounted onto a hand painted gesso sea with landscape painted backdrop, with a small wooden lighthouse in the bottom right-hand corner. Housed in a bespoke pine case with its original glass front still intact. A rare survivor, with a highly decorative naive folk-art look. Size of inches approx.: H 11" x W 17" x D 5.5" Completely solid in structure and form, with natural wear across the entire item, surface has had natural faded, loss and worn marks as shown. The bottom of the diorama has a green velvet cloth stuck on to protect the surface its placed on. This is an old object so please review the photos carefully that reflect the condition of the item. The House of Antiques sells authentic decorative objects, we do not refurbish or repair items unless stated or unless completely necessary to the item's stability or longevity. These objects are old so please expect wear ...
