Description

Large Antique Double Fusee walnut Mantel / Table Clock By George Blackie London. This lovely antique double fusee clock has a walnut case with a stunning grain and wonderful, rich colour. The top of the case then has two square, stepped sections leading to a shaped moulding to the top edge. The main body of the case is then square with the front having four inlet sections to each corner. There is then a further moulding below this leading to the 'belled out' section which gives the clock a lovely, impressive look. Finally there is a further moulding leading to the base which is finished by four, thin wooden feet. The dial is then silvered and set out in Black roman numerals with a thin ring to the outside marking the minutes. The dial is then signed to the centre "GEO BLACKIE 392 STRAND LONDON" to show that the clock was made by George Blackie of London. The dial then has a lovely bevelled and silvered frame surrounding the dial. Finally the dial is finished by two lovely shaped hands as well as a domed, protective glass set into a shaped brass bezel. The movement is then wound from the front and accessed from the back. It is a double chain fusee example of the upmost...
