Description

This is a super set of 6 antique Danish silver coffee spoons with blue and white enamel decoration all in great condition. The hallmark shows the Three-Tower mark for the city of Copenhagen and the intertwined initials SG which tells us these items were made by Simon Groth and the inside of the case shows the retailers mark M.Hammer, Juveleer, Bergen. Simon Groth was a major silversmith making fine quality items in the 19th Century - the business was founded in 1863 and continued until 1904 and we would date these beautiful teaspoons to around the 1880's.
