Description

A large antique Victorian sterling silver teapot which has a plain round shaped body with attractive patterned decoration around the handle, spout and hinged lid. The flower and leaf finial which sits on top of the lid is a particularly appealing feature of this teapot as are the shell designed feet which support the main body. This wonderful silver teapot has been made to a very high standard and it still remains in excellent condition. It would hold 1.1 litres of tea. Height: 18.2 cms (7.2") Length: 27.3 cms (10.7") Width: 16 cms (6.3") Weight: 24.6 troy ounces (765 grams) It was hallmarked in London for 1842 by Reily & Storer and remains in excellent condition.. When taking photographs, it is difficult to eliminate the reflection on silver. This silver teapot has been registered with HM government's website to comply with the new rules concerning ivory. The registration number is: 74W475H6. Complimentary postage is included within the price of this silver teapot. If you have any queries, please do not hesitate to contact us.
