Description

Summary: • Item: Six upholstered Art Deco dining chairs • Circa: 1935 • Provenance: England UK • In the manner of Harry & Lou Epstein Ltd. • Quantity: Six • Wood: Walnut • "Stepped" back design • Upholstered back & seat • Block shape front legs • Splayed rear legs • Ideal restoration project This is a good quality set of six upholstered Art Deco dining chairs, constructed from walnut, with a "stepped" back design, in the manner of Harry & Lou Epstein Ltd., circa 1935, being sold for restoration. Comprising upholstered backs and seats, these chairs are extremely comfortable to sit on for long periods of time. With a "stepped" top rail and stud-work frame, on walnut block shape front legs and splayed legs to the rear. An ideal restoration project for someone looking to put their own "stamp" on them! Once restored, these six upholstered Art Deco dining chairs would command a high value, as such sets of Art Deco chairs are in high demand. Provenance - H & L Epstein Ltd.: Originally founded in the 1890s by Morris Epstein, the Epstein Company would become one of the most recognisable and high-quality producers of Art Deco furniture from the 1930s to the 1950s.
