Description

A generous pair of Regency period mahogany side chairs; the broad tablet top rail veneered in beautifully figured Cuban mahogany above a bar back and a drop-in seat upholstered in patterned brown horse hair; raised on powerful turned and fluted legs. Circa 1825 The design of the Regency chairs is wonderfully bold with their powerful legs and the broad curve to the tablet top rail. The chair maker has made them out of good dense mahogany and they are extremely comfortable to sit on.
