Description

A Queen Anne period, red walnut gateleg side table of small proportions, Circa 1710. With oblong shaped top, drop leaves to either side, supported by a single gateleg. Single drawer with brass pull handle to one end of the frieze. Substructure of barley-twist supports, with oblong stretchers on short turned feet. A rare and very useful little table, with some sympathetic repairs but very charming and full of character. Very good, colour, polish and patina and very much ready for use. Dimensions: This table measures approximately 70 cm (27.5") tall, 82.5 cm (32.5") wide leaves up, and 30.5 cm (12") wide leaves down, 66 cm (26") deep. Condition: Please see the pictures for details of the items condition. - This table is in good condition, commensurate with its age, and is structurally very sound and sturdy. Good colour, pleasing patina, and a good polish. Some minor odd marks and blemishes. Odd sympathetic quality repairs. A few old worm holes, typical of walnut furniture, now extinct, but treated by way of precaution. Ready for use. - As with all vintage & antique furniture there will be signs of use, marks, wear & tear, etc.
