Description

An oak side table, dating from the last quarter of the C17th. Featuring a solid oak plank top with thumb moulded edge, raised on a base of deep plain frieze, with ring turned and block legs on turned feet. All supported by plain stretchers. A charming period table, with good colour, polish and patina. Restorations to some of the stretchers. Dimensions: This table measures approximately 70.5 cm (27.75") tall, 83 cm (32.5") wide, and 53 cm (22") deep. Condition: Please see the pictures for details of the items condition. - This table is in a good condition, commensurate with its age, and is structurally sound and sturdy. Good colour, patina, and polish. Some marks and blemishes. Top and base appear to be original. The front, rear and left stretchers have been replaced. A little historic extinct worm holes to the feet, though do not affect sturdiness of the table in any way. Very serviceable and ready for use. - As with all vintage & antique furniture there will be signs of use, marks, wear & tear, etc.
