Description

A good example of an Art Nouveau style hall lantern dating from the early 20th Century. It has a central clear glass cylinder around the bulb which is surrounded by stylised hand beaten brass arms. The lantern has been re-wired with a simple braided cord and standard bulb holder. It hangs on a small length of brass chain and comes with a brass ceiling rose. The lantern is in good original condition with no major damages. The metal has tarnished over time to give a nice aged patina. The glass is all in good condition and it displays very nicely. It has been lightly cleaned and polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Tracked UK delivery £40.
