Description

This is an antique bow front corner cabinet. An English, mahogany and oak wall cupboard, dating to the Georgian period, circa 1770. Superb craftsmanship and figuring to this fine Georgian example. Displays a desirable aged patina and in good order. Select stocks show delightful grain interest and rich russet hues. Oak lined interior presents and an abundance of medullary rays. Prominent moulded cornice tapers gracefully. Pair of bow front doors dressed with ornate brass escutcheons and H-shaped hinges. Benefits from a working lock to right-hand door —key present. Sliding hook and eye retains the left-hand door when closed. Arrangement of three shelves to the interior with graduated shelf height. Useful trio of drawers to the lower edge, each with small brass pull. Tapered front plinth arches around the foot of the cabinet. Of floorstanding form, with a depth of 53cm (20.75") when situated in the corner of the room. This is a desirable antique bow front corner cabinet, graced with excellent figuring and colour. Superior Georgian craftsmanship evident throughout. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home. Dimensions: Max Width: 71.5cm (28.25"...
