Description

This fire basket is a rather appealing shape and is in a most useable condition and has similar fire front that came with it. They are really keenly priced as they came with another item that was needed for a specific job, so they can now be cleared at much less than we can see elsewhere. The price is only £160 for both items, they are from early half of last century. Ther fire front is 45cms wide 20 high and 8deep. The size of the basket is shown below.
