Description

A matching pair of Art Deco walnut side occasional table / lamp tables with each having rectangular tops supported by walnut panels with reeded fronts. Each raised on cylindrical legs. Both tables were made in 1936 in the Bristol Aeroplane Company woodworking workshops. They were then placed in the New Filton House (also known as Pegasus House) for many years. The Art Deco building, New Filton House was built in 1936 and designed by Whinney, Son and Austin Hall. Metal oval label to one table marked, 'Aircraft 40 Division 75109'. All our furniture is professionally polished and restored where necessary. Our restorer has over 40 years of furniture restoration experience including 15 years living at Windsor Castle whilst working for the Royal household, so comes highly recommended! Each table Height: 51cm Width: 76cm Depth: 40.5cm Height of bottom shelf: 27cm
