Description

This is a particularly fine and pretty example of an Edwardian giardinetti (small garden) brooch, which has been converted to a pendant with a solid nine-carat gold bail at the top. The flower basket is set with multicoloured and white pastes, which are foil backed and super sparkly. We have hung the pendant ready to wear on an antique gold-plated chain dating from the same era (included) but it looks equally good on a silver chain. The piece is in excellent antique condition; the stones are bright and crisply faceted and free of chips. Size: Approximately 2.4 x 3.1cm. Chain length: Approx 16.5 inches. Weight: 6.2g. FREE INTERNATIONAL SHIPPING! Apologies but we cannot ship to Germany, any orders from Germany will be cancelled and refunded.
