Description

A good example of a late 19th / early 20th century brass door stop in the form of a dolphin. It is a heavy piece with lots of nice detail and a great patina. It is in good condition for its age with no damages. The brass has tarnished over time and we have only lightly polished it to retain the patina. There are some light surface scratches and signs of use and age but nothing detrimental. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Tracked UK delivery £15
