Description

Antique Oak Double Fusee Ting Tang Mantel Clock By Winterhalder & Hofmeier W&H. This lovely antique double fusee mantel clock has an oak case with a lovely rich colour and grain. The top of the case is then shaped with lovely scrollwork to the front followed by a shaped moulding. There is then a further scrollwork section followed by a further moulding. The body of the case is then square with two reeded columns to the front and lovely thick, bevelled glass viewing windows to the sides. There is then a further moulding to the bottom leading to a scrollwork section to the middle of the front. The base is then shaped and stepped out to the side to create the feet. The dial is then silvered with a silvered chapter ring set out in black Roman numerals with a thin ring to the outside marking the minutes. There are then two subsidiary dial to the top, one to regulate, and one to adjust the clock to either "CHIME" or "SILENT". Finally the dial is finished by two lovely shaped hands as well as a protective, bevelled glass set into a brass bezel. The movement is then wound from the front and accessed from the back. It is a double chain fusee example of the upmost quality. The ...
