Description

A good silver plated communion set comprising a large flagon and two goblets. Marked for the makers Daniel and Arter (1890-1900). The flagon is of a good heavy quality with a stylised thumb piece and a 'false' bottom. The goblets are also of a good heavy quality with stylised bodies. The condition is good overall with no dents or splits. The plating is in very good order with a few stubborn black marks in the raised areas. Relatively clean interiors. Total weight approx 2.1kg. Flagon - height approx 31cm, span approx 23cm and base diameter approx 16cm. Goblets - height approx 22cm. Base diameter approx 9.5cm
