Description

An attractive 19th century antique oak tilt top tripod table. The antique table has a four panel, circular shaped oak surface top, which is raised on a turned pedestal with a tripod base. The top can be tilted upright for storage purposes. Lovely patina throughout. Item Ref; M-4652 . DIMENSIONS: Height – 71cm / Width – 82cm / Depth – 80cm / Height (upright) - 121cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including age-related marks, scratches, shrinkage, stains, fading and warping to the top (pictured), further marks and scratches to the legs. There is evidence of historic woodworm to the legs (pictured), however this is now long gone and has been fully treated as a precaution. The antique tilt top tripod table remains structurally solid and sound, with movement when fixed down. Overall, a good example. Our carpenter inspects, repairs, and restores our items, so you can have full confidence that what you buy from us is ready for your home! We ask that you take the time to look at all the photos as they form part of the description and condition report of the item. .
