Description

Stunning Antique Mahogany Tavern Wall Clock With Glass Door And Brass Weights. This stunning antique tavern wall clock has a mahogany case with a fantastic rich colour and grain. The clock has a round top with a fantastic frame around the dial which is intricately shaped to give a beautiful effect. The body of the case is then rectangular with inlet reeded front edges as well as a lovely glass viewing window to the door so that the pendulum and weights can be seen. The glass window is then framed by shaped brass as well as the edge of the door being shaped in a similar way to the top tying the whole clock together nicely. Finally the bottom of the case is shaped in a lovely manner which finishes off the case perfectly. The dial is then brass with a silvered chapter ring set out in black Roman numerals as well as every five minutes being marked in Arabic numerals. The centre of the dial then has a lovely pitted effect and is signed by the maker "Springall Norwich" to a small silvered disk. The dial is then finished by two beautifully shaped hands as well as a domed, protective glass set into a shaped brass bezel. The movement is then wound from the front and accessed b...
