Description

An unusual and beautifully engraved antique cross made in a gorgeous 9ct rose gold. There is a small shield shaped empty cartouche in the centre. Nice proportions (4 cm x 2.4 cm) with a loop at the top for attachment to a chain. The back of the cross is fully hallmarked '9 .375, Birmingham 1903'. A wonderful cross in lovely condition. There is a tiny pink prick hole in the corner of the right side of the cross, this is mentioned for accuracy and can only be seen viewed through a magnifying loupe. Lovely as a gift.
