Price

SoldItem Reference: SA980351*Date of manufacture: 19th Century

Description

A set of seven large late 19th century blue glass French apothecary jars, with remnants of original contents remaining within a few. Each jar is formed from a vibrant blue glass, full of character with bubbles throughout and its original red and gilt tin lid. Three of the jars have their original cork; it is these jars that have retained the remnants of their original contents within. All seven jars are in a very good condition, free from chips and cracks. Perfect for display in a bar or kitchen.
