Description

This is an antique dining hall gong. An English, bronze over cast iron ceremonial alarm, dating to the early Victorian period, circa 1850. Substantial and striking gong, with distinctive appearance. Displays a desirable aged patina and in good order throughout. Patinated bronze gong presents mottled golden tones. Cast iron frame presents deep chestnut brown hues. Set within a circular frame, the gong is supported upon a leather strap. Of deep timbre, the gong strikes with a confident tone. Stout cork striking mallet in good original order. Dashing tripartite base profusely decorated in ornate scrolled leaf motif. Reassuringly heavy and robust at a weight of 28.7kg (63.2 lb). This is a captivating antique dining hall gong, presenting a distinguished chime and set within a highly distinctive show frame. Of substantial weight and undeniable presence. Delivered polished and ready for the home or institution.
