SoldItem Reference: SA980758*Date of manufacture: 1850

Description

A beautiful mid 19th century figured mahogany dressing chest on four original concealed oak and brass casters, the front with graduated drawers – two rows of faux over two true working drawers – and the cupboard below retaining original lock and original single removable shelf, all in solid mahogany, the shelf with a polished mahogany shaped front which was a finer detail added to conceal the grain of the cut shelf. . The substantial top lifts to reveal the inner finished dressing table – for washbowl and combs – and the original framed mirror, in very good condition, reflecting perfectly with only a few small areas of degradation to the silver. The substantial brass hinges are stamped 'Huxley & Ching' (a firm whose ironmongery has been found on several high quality pieces by Holland and Sons. Please see Christies Auction 3137, Lot 407 and Woolley and Wallis, 11 March 2008, lot 318). . The mirror has a hinged mahogany stand at the rear which lifts and slots into a recessed ladder strip, giving several tilt positions. The brass pinch mirror lock again extremely substantial and all the elements are of particularly good quality and remain in perfect working order. . The inne...
