Description

A fantastic quality and a fine example of a carved oak sideboard server. With a 2 tier serving area supported with carved back supports and fronted by nicely redded columns. Top tier has 2 carved fronted drawers and each drawer is solid oak lined and is constructed with dovetail joints. Lower tier has 2 carved fronted doors with the left hand side having a middle shelf and the right hand side having the middle shelf removed probably to house bottles. The whole body is fronted by lovely carvings and is in all round great condition with very little flaws apart from a slight aged split on top right (see pic) Item is collection only from LL29 or please contact seller for possible delivery quote.
