Description

This fantastic piece of history, has a beautiful colour coupled with original features. In amazing condition for its age, not only does it have a wonderful patination complete with blacksmith made hinges but an abundance of storage inside. Some historic restoration has been completed and the original locks are not in attendance one of the drop handles is missing from the left hand drawer, but this all just adds to its authenticity. All drawers and lid work as they should. all in all a magnificent piece of country house furniture.
