Description

A beautiful matched pair of Art Nouveau style silver and enamel napkin rings. Made in Birmingham by William Hair Haseler in 1926 and 1928. They are in excellent condition especially the enamels which have no damage. Although made two years apart they are almost an exact match. They both have a full set of hallmarks on the opposite side from the enamels. Very collectible pieces. WEIGHT; 28 grams. Free delivery in the UK, payment by bank transfer, paypal, telephone or cleared cheque.
