Description

For your consideration is this rather special Art Deco large cut glass atomizer perfume bottle. This bottle really is a delight in every aspect. On first viewing one can't not notice the size which is substantially larger than most perfumery bottles. The body is decorated with frosted panels, engraved stripes and cross hatches, and black enamel polka dots, the white metal cover stamped with the export mark "Tchecoslovaquie", c. 1930s. The silk tassel is in excellent condition. A great piece for vanity collectors or Art Deco collections. These size bottles are becoming increasingly hard to source, particularly without damage.
